Who we Are

Artivism is a community of college-age students of color dedicated to encouraging activism through artistic expression.

“Having a creative outlet and community could make all the difference in someone’s life. We want to change lives.”

–J. Hughes, Co-Founder

Mission Statement

With a commitment to creativity, we strive to create an environment free of judgment for all artistic outlets and expressions. We acknowledge that art comes in many forms and...

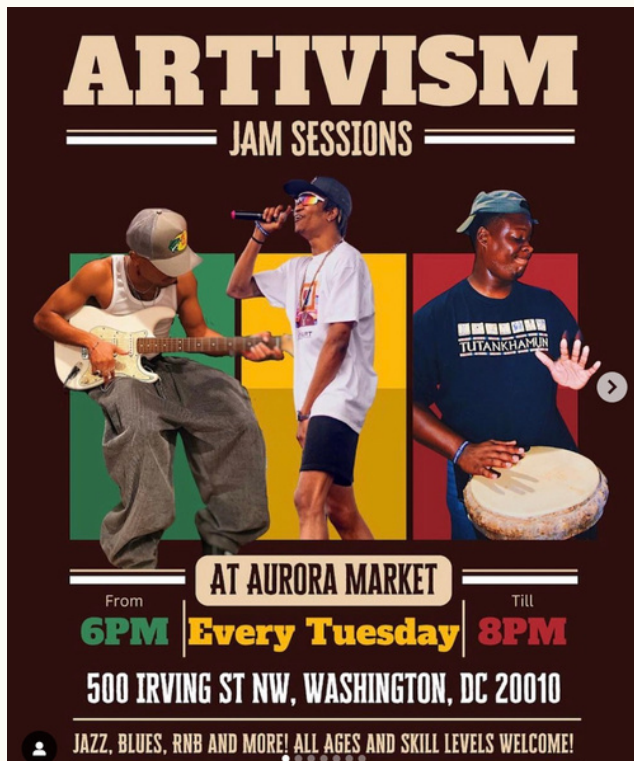

We welcome all to our community
